Weave to Dust, Power Crave and Layers of Compassion

All three items are made for the Wizard Slayer class only.

Together they form a set.

However, the sets only have the same background story, so there is no loss of power of the items if they are not equipped on the same character.

All items are unidentified which will get the generic vanilla in-game description if unidentified.

Descriptions

Weave to Dust

This enchanted katana is called Weave to Dust. Its name comes from its ability to dispel any wards, a caster has cast on himself, with one successful hit. It's actually part of a set of Wizard Slayer gear. On closer inspection, it becomes clear that this sword, with its numerous gemstones on the hilt, is not a classic Kara Tur katana. It was forged in Calimshan by an unknown blacksmith. The idea behind this sword is to combine a near-perfect battle sword with the stunning aesthetics of the Calimshan Forge. The customer who commissioned this sword from the unknown smith is himself known as Akun Zaran, a Wizard Slayer.
